

Linkages 2016
U.S. Program

Tuesday, January 26

Arrivals

6:30 pm Welcome dinner in room 124

Wednesday, January 27

8:15 am – Meet in dining hall for orientation

9:00 am – Room 109 – Tour of the library, overview of online research resources, visit rare book room

11:30 – Tour of campus

Thursday, January 28

12:10 - Faculty Lounge - Human Rights Workshop on “Truth, Justice, and Reparations in the Colombian Peace Deal” with Michael Reed Hurtado

Friday, January 29

3:00 pm -- Tour of residential college

5:00 pm – Room 129 -- Latin American Presentations

Irapuã Santana – Why Brazil Needs its Black Awareness Day

Guillermo Holsman – Complex Litigation and Environmental Protection in Argentina: The Riachuelo Case Seven Years Later

7:30 pm – Yale Philharmonic Orchestra – Woolsey Hall

Saturday, January 30

8 - 9 pm - Salsa class at GPSCY - registration required

9 pm - 2 am - Salsa night at GPSCY (the grad student bar - a social option for after the concert)

Sunday, January 31

7:00 pm – Official welcome dinner at the home of Professor Daniel Markovits

Monday, February 1

12:10 pm – Room 124 - “Impeachment, Nullification, and the Democratic Deadlock in Brazil” – Oscar Vilhena Vieira, Vera Karam de Chueiri, Marina Zago

2:00 pm – Room 110 - Professor Oona Hathaway -- read chapter 17 of her new book

6:10 - 8pm - Room 127 - Documentary Screening, “Well-Founded Fear,” about US process of adjudicating asylum claims. (contact Lizzy for more info)

Tuesday, February 2

12:10 - 2pm: Room 124 - “Environmental Law Boot Camp” with the Environmental Protection Clinic (contact Lizzy for more info / readings)

6:30 - 7:30 pm: Room 112 - The Flint Water Crisis and Environmental Racism (public talk)

7:00 pm: Leitner Family Observatory -- “Solar superstorms” -- meet at the Table at 6:25

Wednesday, February 3

6:10pm - Room 129 - A Lecture by Alfredo Jaar: “It Is Difficult” (public talk)
“The artist will discuss his recent work and its connections with international human rights. Jaar’s work engages such issues as the complexities of memory and memorial, the limitations of art in representing human suffering, and the role of the artist as activist, and such topics as state violence in Chile, the environmental and human costs of toxic waste, and genocide in Rwanda.”

Thursday, February 4

12:10 - 1pm Room 127 - Ending Mass Incarceration: The Promise of Equal Justice
A Conversation with Inimai Chettiar, Brennan Center for Justice (public event)

2:00 – Guided tour of Yale Art Gallery -- meet at the Table at 1:40

Friday, February 5

12:00 – Yale Law Journal offices (meet at the Table at 11:50) - Mike Clemente,
Editor-in-Chief of the Yale Law Journal

6:00 pm -- Latin American Presentations

Sebastian Guidi - Whose law is it anyway? The role of foreign and international law in adjudication in Argentina

Ana Carolina Bracarense - Transitional justice in Brazil

Karina Carpintero on the Public Interest Movement in Argentina

Saturday, February 6

Yale-Harvard hockey game

Sunday, February 7

6:30 pm – Super Bowl - those who aren't doing anything with their hosts or other Yalies can come to Brad's house by Uber or taxi.

Monday, February 8

12:10 -- Room 108 -- Professor Dan Kahan and Cultural Cognition

3:15 - Dean's Office - Meet with Dean Robert Post

4:30 -- Room 127 – Rethinking the International Refugee Regime -- T. Alexander
Aleinikoff, Deputy High Commissioner in the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees

Tuesday, February 9

11:10 - Room 111 - Meet with Professor Tracey Meares

12:10 - Faculty Lounge - Alexander Aleinikoff - Our Broken Refugee System:
Repairing Overseas and Domestic Processes

2:10 -- Room 111 -- Professor Heather Gerken

3:10 – Room 111 - Professor David Schleicher – The Puerto Rican debt crisis and state bankruptcy

4:15 - Room 122 - “At Long Last? Efforts to Reform Pinochet’s Constitution in Chile” -- Jorge Contesse, Associate Professor of Law at Rutgers, and Sergio Verdugo, University of Chile and NYU

Wednesday, February 10

1:10 - Room 113 - Professor Ian Ayres

Friday, February 12

4:00 pm -- Yale School of Drama Iseman Theater -- 1156 Chapel St - The Merchant of Venice (talk to Brad for tickets) (so far Sebastian and Aninha have ‘dibs’ on tickets so there are 2 left)

6:00 pm -- Room 129 -- Latin American student presentations

Olivia and Anna Binotto - LBGT rights in Brazil

Gabi and Domingo - Colusión en Chile, lo que es y lo que será

10:00 pm -- Party hearty on Mansfield St

Saturday, February 13

9:00 pm -- TBA -- Leftist Love, 132nd annual YLS Valentine’s Eve Party

Wednesday, February 17

1:10 - Room 111 - Meet with Conchita Cruz, former Linkage student and current clinic director

Thursday, February 18

6:02 am -- Catch train to New York City

9:00 am - Thurgood Marshall Courthouse on Foley Square - Observe hearings at the Second Circuit Federal Court of Appeals and perhaps meet with the Hon. Bob Sack

12:30 - Lunch at Cleary Gottlieb, the firm representing Argentina in the ‘sovereign bond hold-outs’ case

2:30 - Visit Human Rights First to learn about their efforts to advocate for immigrants and refugees

Friday - Saturday, February 19-20

2016 Rebellious Lawyering Conference

Sunday, February 21

Departures